

What exactly are the “Big Brains”?

“Big Brain” is a term that refers to large brain Hominid species who possess brains significantly larger than our own Homo sapiens brains. The term originates with the book Big Brain by Professors Gary Lynch and Richard Granger, which was in part about the Boskop man whose skull was discovered in Boskop South Africa in about 1912.

The fragments of this skull were studied by the renown Paleontologist Robert Broom who concluded: “in South Africa in very early times there lived a race of primitive man characterized by having a large skull with very thick parietal bones, a brain of great size and a powerful jaw with incisors and canines much larger than modern man...I propose the name Homo capensis, regarding it as sufficiently distinct from Homo sapiens to be worthy of specific rank.”

Boskop Man, Homo capensis possessed a brain 30% larger than Homo sapiens. Lynch and Granger performed conservative calculations to estimate the intelligence of Homo capensis by determining the increase in size of the association area for a brain 30% larger than ours, but in many ways similar in architecture, and came up with an average IQ of 149, with 10-15% of the population at 180 or more.

What did they do with this powerful brain?

There are ancient stone structures in this region such as Adams Calendar, which maps the constellation Orion with large irregular boulders and provided sightings for the equinoxes. This formation of boulders is estimated to be 70,000 years old. There is also a small pyramid in the area, which is on the longitude of the Great Pyramid in Giza. Also there is the stone ruins of a large civilization a bit to the north where there are tens of thousands of rough stone silos like structures without windows or doors.

What are these silos?

They have been reported to be cattle pens, which is impossible. A more modern explanation is that they are an energy system, which seems even more impossible. I have postulated that they functioned as containment structures for two legged chattel, that is to say slaves, entered by a ladder outside and an inside ladder which could be pulled up and out. There are ancient gold mines in the area and evidence of substantial agriculture, which would have required large numbers of workers. What is remarkable is that the archeology of this area is not extensively studied.

Do you think it was humans or Homo capensis built Adams Calendar and the stone silos, and what is your reasoning?

To answer that I will use information found in the Coda of Big Brain.

A communal living area was excavated. Human skeletons were found, casually interred. An elaborate tomb contained the skeleton of a single individual facing the rising sun. The skeleton was normal except for a skull with a very large cranial capacity. It would seem that the Big Brain was dominant over Homo sapiens. Similar situations have been found in Paracas Peru by Brien Foerster. The artistic qualities of Adams Calendar are very poor (primitive) and for comparison not up to the standard of cave paintings (see Power Point), yet the mathematical ability of the builders very high, especially when we consider the Ice Age Earth Maps, which use spherical trigonometry.

Of course the book Big Brain said they are extinct, BUT, I have received reports of current sighting of very large head individuals, seen in Cairo, South Africa, Portugal, and the US. These individuals would likely be of the species Homo capensis, with their head shape modified by molding in infancy. Check the images of Akhenaten's daughters for examples of the shape. There are also the large skull "Cone Heads" found in the Ica Museum in Paracas Peru, and described by Brien Foerster. There are no sightings of this auburn haired large brain mono parietal plate species that I know of.

How are they different from Homo capensis?

Cone shaped heads with one parietal plate rather than two, orbits 20% larger than ours, a very large brain capacity, few or no molar teeth, and two occipital foramina high in the occipital region. They are clearly a species different from Homo sapiens and Homo capensis. It is likely that the Pharaoh Akhenaten was of this species and not human, and Akhenaten had a second career as Moses or Abraham.

What are the Ice Age Earth Maps?

I learned about them from Graham Hancock's Underworld. The entire earth was mapped during the Ice Age, when sea level was 400 feet lower, and this tells that an incredible civilization encompassed the entire earth. Critically important is that establishment universities and institutions do not study these maps and do not tell students about them. These establishment institutions ignore Homo capensis and actually go out of the way to suppress this information.

Where can we read about this information?

Books that are very useful include: Maps of the Ancient Sea Kings by Charles Hapgood, Big Brain by Professors Gary Lynch and Richard Granger, The Enigma of Cranial Deformation by Brien Foerster, and Underworld by Graham Hancock. Christmas is coming and these books are excellent gifts. I will also add to the list, which I will expand later, the Jefferson Bible, a thin book on the ethical teachings of Jesus Christ, Akhenaten, The Heretic King, by Donald D. Redford, and Akhenaten, Egypt's False Prophet, by Nicholas Reeves.

A significant number of people need to know about this material so that we can rationally fight for the survival of Homo sapiens, our species. We are definitely being sent to extinction by assaults on our brains and bodies by trans-humanism, poisons, EMF, mind control technologies, vaccination, ionizing radiation from Fukushima, geo-engineering imposed drought, surreptitious replacement of legitimate government by corporations, from top to bottom, totally dishonest media, education that wrecks our minds, total subversion of psychiatry and medicine, and on and on.

How do you tie the material above to human extinction?

First one must decide: how do we define extinction, and if we, as a species, are under attack. From the above list it is obvious that we are under attack and we must ask the question: where will it end?

Where will it end? Will we be gone completely like the Dodo and the Passenger Pigeon?

I think the plan is to turn us into robot like animals totally under control, filled with RFID chips and circuits, run by super computers, living without families or opportunity to be creative, totally ignorant, devoid of love and compassion, absolute lab animals like what we have done to other species.

Why don't they just get rid of us completely, total extinction, gone?

I think they need us as slaves, and that includes bright technical and scientific type "humans" to design and make things, such as remote torture and keep the core population under control, and... for purposes we can't imagine. I think they've owned us for a very long time, back into the Ice Age. You have to look at what's happening now and try to extrapolate an end point. You have to look at the Georgia Guide Stones and the work of Catherine Austin Fitts indicating that about 95% of us are on the way out. And, we are clearly being replaced with computers.

THE MESSAGE OF THE GEORGIA GUIDESTONES

1. Maintain humanity under 500,000,000 in perpetual balance with nature.
2. Guide reproduction wisely - improving fitness and diversity.
3. Unite humanity with a living new language.
4. Rule passion - faith - tradition - and all things with tempered reason.
5. Protect people and nations with fair laws and just courts.
6. Let all nations rule internally resolving external disputes in a world court.
7. Avoid petty laws and useless officials.
8. Balance personal rights with social duties.
9. Prize truth - beauty - love - seeking harmony with the infinite.
10. Be not a cancer on the earth - Leave room for nature - Leave room for nature.

If the large brain Hominids are attacking us, how do they do it? How do they cause so much to happen to us? And what is their motive?

That is a very important question. We don't see them in government or military yet I have postulated they are the mind organizing the multiple assaults. This leads us into the swamp of mechanisms of attack, and brave researchers have worked diligently on understanding the mechanisms without knowing about the possibility of another species pulling the strings. I am referring to Andrew Lobaczewski, author of Political Ponerology, A Science on the Nature of Evil Adjusted for Political Purposes. The World is run by men afflicted with character disorders. They are “psychopaths.” One only has to review history and look at the Oval Office and Number 10 Downing to see this. We need to investigate character disorders and brain function in general. Of course the attackers are already doing this intensely.

The question is: how are these men impaired by character disorders organized, how is it that they hold dominant positions? On examination we see that all control systems are not legitimate government, but are corporate entities psychopathic in nature and structure.

And the motive of the Big Brains?

They overtly controlled the entire earth during the Ice Age and want to overtly control it again. It's the only motive that makes any sense

You said that Akhenaten had a second career as either Moses or Abraham. How do the Jews fit into your theory?

Studying the Jews proved critical in developing the Theory. From Eustace Mullins, a personal friend, I learned about his book Mullins' New History of the Jews. In this Book he writes that something in the Jewish Nation took down by subversion: Babylon, Persia, Greece, Egypt and Rome. So the questions are: How did they become such experts at subversion right from their beginning, and why? It makes no sense. Then when I found out about the Ice Age earth maps and the mysterious civilization that produced them it became clear that there was adequate time (tens of thousands of years) for the methods of subversion to be developed. And on looking into circumcision it became obvious that this was a sign of having been captured.

The hypothesis of the Big Brain advanced to a proven theory when Karen Hudes told me about Akhenaten. I predicted that at some point in history the Big Brains were in close contact with the Jews. The connection is there and it is incredible. The Pharaoh Akhenaten became Abraham, lead a group of Egyptians out of Egypt, and they became known as the Jews. The entire Exodus event is cut from whole cloth, as is the Flood. The people known as Jews have been completely bamboozled (as have all of us).

Do you think the Big Brains are Extra-Terrestrials, or Nephilim or Anunnaki?

No, it is probable that these ideas were invented to direct attention away from the Big Brain Hominids. The reasoning here is that there is no convincing evidence of Extra-Terrestrials, the Big Brain Hominids were here during the Ice Age, the Old Testament is not a credible document, information regarding the Big Brain Hominids is hidden in plain sight, study of the Ice Age Civilization and the Big Brains is suppressed, we have actually sighted Big Brain Hominids walking among us, and Cone Head Akhenaten as Abraham seals the deal.

In 1950 Enrico Fermi, Edward Teller and other physicists sat at lunch talking about the lack of evidence for Extra-Terrestrials. Fermi asked: “Where is Everybody?" (Fermi Paradox- http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Fermi_paradox) There were no ETs in 1950 and now there are many types, which is highly suspicious. Remote influence of our minds by scalar technology is now a reality and has been a reality since about 1960. "Alien Abduction" is probably the influence of this technology on our brains, also the "Moth Man" phenomena in West Virginia in 1966. The Harvard psychiatrist John E. Mack wrote extensively on Alien Abduction and Harvard conducted a "witch hunt" on him. Mac Tonnies was writing a book Crypto-Terrestrials and died in his sleep at age 34, I gave a Power Point lecture Crypto-Terrestrial vs. Extra-Terrestrials on Saturday and began bleeding from the colon on Monday (five bleeds, nine transfusions). Ah, the power of coincidence. John E. Mack MD was killed by a drunk driver in London in 2004. Does anyone believe this was an accident? http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/John_E._Mack

The task before us is to insure the survival of our species, Homo sapiens, and while we are doing this to do everything possible to promote the development of our minds, our ethical loving nature, our creativity, our brilliance. Something seems to be upset with what we are and what we can do. There is a reference that I can't locate that reads: "Who knows what they might have done?" Well whatever you are, we're going to do it.

SUBJECT: Admiral Piri Reis World Map

To: Professor Charles H. Hapgood, Keene College, Keene, New Hampshire.

Dear Professor Hapgood,

Your request for evaluation of certain unusual features of the Piri Reis World Map of 1513 by this organization has been reviewed.

The claim that the lower part of the map portrays the Princess Martha Coast of Queen Maud Land Antarctica, and the Palmer Peninsula, is reasonable. We find this is the most logical and in all probability the correct interpretation of the map.

The geographical detail shown in the lower part of the map agrees very remarkably with the results of the seismic profile made across the top of the ice-cap by the Swedish-British Antarctic Expedition of 1949.

This indicates the coastline had been mapped before it was covered by the ice-cap.

The ice-cap in this region is now about a mile thick.

We have no idea how the data on this map can be reconciled with the supposed state of geographical knowledge in 1513.

HAROLD Z. OHLMEYER
Lt Colonel, USAF Commander

Despite the deadpan language, Ohlmeyer's letter¹ is a bombshell. If Queen Maud Land was mapped before it was covered by ice, the original cartography must have been done an extraordinarily long time ago.

Excerpts from the letter by Lorenzo W. Burroughs, Captain, USAF, Chief, Cartographic Section:

“... The comparison also suggests that the original source maps (compiled in remote antiquity) were prepared when Antarctica was presumably free of ice. The Cordiform Projection used by Oronteus Fineaus (sic) suggests the use of advanced mathematics. Further, the shape given to the Antarctic continent suggests the possibility, if not the probability, that the original source maps were compiled on a stereographic or gnomonic type of projection (involving the use of spherical trigonometry)

d. We are convinced that the findings made by you and your associates are valid, and that they raise extremely important questions affecting geology and ancient history, questions which certainly require further investigation...”

"According to the records of secret Jewish Zionism, Solomon and other Jewish learned men already, in 929 B.C., thought out a scheme in theory for a peaceful conquest of the whole universe by Zion. As history developed, this scheme was worked out in detail and completed by men who were subsequently initiated in this question. These learned men decided by peaceful means to conquer the world for Zion with the slyness of the Symbolic Snake, whose head was to represent those who have been initiated into the plans of the Jewish administration, and the body of the Snake to represent the Jewish people - the administration was always kept secret, EVEN FROM THE JEWISH NATION ITSELF. As this Snake penetrated into the hearts of the nations which it encountered it undermined and devoured all the non-Jewish power of these States. It is foretold that the Snake has still to finish its work, strictly adhering to the designed plan, until the course which it has to run is closed by the return of its head to Zion and until, by this means, the Snake has completed its round of Europe and has encircled it - and until, by dint of enchaining Europe, it has encompassed the whole world. This it is to accomplish by using every endeavor to subdue the other countries by an ECONOMICAL CONQUEST.

The Fermi paradox (or Fermi's paradox) is the apparent contradiction between high estimates of the probability of the existence of extraterrestrial civilization and humanity's lack of contact with, or evidence for, such civilizations.^[1] The basic points of the argument, made by physicists Enrico Fermi and Michael H. Hart, are:

- The Sun is a typical star, and relatively young. There are billions of stars in the galaxy that are billions of years older.
- Almost surely, some of these stars will have Earth-like planets.^[2] Assuming the Earth is typical, some of these planets may develop intelligent life.
- Some of these civilizations may develop interstellar travel, a technology Earth is investigating even now (such as the 100 Year Starship).
- Even at the slow pace of currently envisioned interstellar travel, the galaxy can be completely colonized in a few tens of millions of years.

According to this line of thinking, the Earth should already have been colonized, or at least visited. But no convincing evidence of this exists. Furthermore, no confirmed signs of intelligence (see Empirical resolution attempts) elsewhere have yet been spotted in our galaxy or (to the extent it would be detectable) elsewhere in the observable universe. Hence Fermi's question, "Where is everybody?"^[3]

Georgia Guidestones

The

Georgia Guidestones

On one of the highest hilltops in Elbert County, Georgia stands a huge granite monument. Engraved in eight different languages on the four giant stones that support the common capstone are 10 Guides, or commandments. That monument is alternately referred to as The Georgia Guidestones, or the American Stonehenge. Though relatively unknown to most people, it is an important link to the Occult Hierarchy that dominates the world in which we live.

The origin of that strange monument is shrouded in mystery because no one knows the true identity of the man, or men, who commissioned its construction. All that is known for certain is that in June 1979, a well-dressed, articulate stranger visited the office of the Elberton Granite Finishing Company and announced that he wanted to build an edifice to transmit a message to mankind. He identified himself as R. C. Christian, but it soon became apparent that was not his real name. He said that he represented a group of men who wanted to offer direction to humanity, but to date, almost two decades later, no one knows who R. C. Christian really was, or the names of those he represented. Several things are apparent. The messages engraved on the Georgia Guidestones deal with four major fields: (1) Governance and the establishment of a world government, (2) Population and reproduction control, (3) The environment and man's relationship to nature, and (4) Spirituality.

In the public library in Elberton, I found a book written by the man who called himself R.C. Christian. I discovered that the monument he commissioned had been erected in recognition of Thomas Paine and the occult philosophy he espoused. Indeed, the Georgia Guidestones are used for occult ceremonies and mystic celebrations to this very day. Tragically, only one religious leader in the area had the courage to speak out against the American Stonehenge, and he has recently relocated his ministry.

THE MESSAGE OF THE GEORGIA GUIDESTONES

1. Maintain humanity under 500,000,000 in perpetual balance with nature.
2. Guide reproduction wisely - improving fitness and diversity.
3. Unite humanity with a living new language.
4. Rule passion - faith - tradition - and all things with tempered reason.
5. Protect people and nations with fair laws and just courts.
6. Let all nations rule internally resolving external disputes in a world court.
7. Avoid petty laws and useless officials.
8. Balance personal rights with social duties.
9. Prize truth - beauty - love - seeking harmony with the infinite.
10. Be not a cancer on the earth - Leave room for nature - Leave room for nature.

Limiting the population of the earth to 500 million will require the extermination of nine-tenths of the world's people. The American Stonehenge's reference to establishing a world court foreshadows the current move to create an International Criminal Court and a world government. The Guidestones' emphasis on preserving nature anticipates the environmental movement of the 1990s, and the reference to "seeking harmony with the infinite" reflects the current effort to replace Judeo-Christian beliefs with a new spirituality.

The message of the American Stonehenge also foreshadowed the current drive for Sustainable Development. Any time you hear the phrase "Sustainable Development" used, you should substitute the term "socialism" to be able to understand what is intended. Later in this syllabus you will read the full text of the Earth Charter which was compiled under the direction of Mikhail Gorbachev and Maurice Strong. In that document you will find an emphasis on the same basic issues: control of reproduction, world governance, the importance of nature and the environment, and a new spirituality. The similarity between the ideas engraved on the Georgia Guidestones and those espoused in the Earth Charter reflect the common origins of both.

Yoko Ono, the widow of John Lennon, was recently quoted as referring to the American Stonehenge, saying:

"I want people to know about the stones ... We're headed toward a world where we might blow ourselves up and maybe the globe will not exist ... it's a nice time to reaffirm ourselves, knowing all the beautiful things that are in this country and the Georgia Stones symbolize that. " (1)

What is the true significance of the American Stonehenge, and why is its covert message important? Because it confirms the fact that there was a covert group intent on

- (1) Dramatically reducing the population of the world.
- (2) Promoting environmentalism.

- (3) Establishing a world government.
- (4) Promoting a new spirituality.

Certainly the group that commissioned the Georgia Guidestones is one of many similar groups working together toward a New World Order, a new world economic system, and a new world spirituality. Behind those groups, however, are dark spiritual forces. Without understanding the nature of those dark forces it is impossible to understand the unfolding of world events.

The fact that most Americans have never heard of the Georgia Guidestones or their message to humanity reflects the degree of control that exists today over what the American people think. We ignore that message at our peril.

Copies are available for researchers from Radio Liberty.

The Age of Reason was a book written by Thomas Paine. Its intent was to destroy the Judeo-Christian beliefs upon which our Republic was founded.

The hole that you see in the stone was drilled in the Center Stone so that the North Star could be visualized through it at any moment. This was one of several requirements stipulated by R.C.Christian for the building of the American Stonehenge and reflects his obsession with the alignment of the stars, the sun, and the moon. Occultists often worship the alignment and movement of heavenly bodies as part of their religious ceremonies Return to Radio Liberty home page

Catherine Austine Fitts: Swine Flu - What I Believe

I believe one of the goals of the swine flu vaccine is depopulation. Perhaps it is the goal of a swine flu epidemic as well, whether bio-warfare or hype around a flu season.

These days, I keep remembering my sense of urgency leaving the Bush Administration in 1991. We had to do something to turn around the economy and gather real assets behind retirement plans and the social safety net. If not, Americans could find themselves deeply out on a limb. I felt my family and friends were in danger. They did not share my concern. They had a deep faith in the system.

As my efforts to find ways of reengineering government investment in communities failed to win political support, Washington and Wall Street moved forward with a debt bubble and globalization that was horrifying in its implications for humanity.

Overwhelmed by what was happening, I estimated the end result. My simple calculations guessed that we were going to achieve economic sustainability on Earth by depopulating down to a population of approximately 500 million people from our then current global population of 6 billion. I was a portfolio strategist used to looking at numbers from a very high level. Those around me could not fathom how all the different threads I was integrating could lead to such a conclusion. To me, we had to have radical change in how we governed resources or depopulate. It was a mathematical result.

A year later, in 1999, a very capable investment and portfolio strategist asked me if he could come have a private lunch with me in Washington. We sat in a posh restaurant across from the Capitol. He said quietly that he had calculated out where the derivatives and debt bubble combined with globalization were going. The only logical conclusion he could reach was that significant depopulation was going to occur. He said his estimates lead to an approximate population of 500 million. I said very quietly, "that's my estimate too." I will never forget the look of sadness that crossed his face. I was amazed to find someone else who understood.

It turns out that we were not alone. Sir James Goldsmith had warned of the consequences of GATT in 1994. He described the process underway, involving the loss of land and livelihood for 3 billion people, "...This is the establishment against the rest of society." Voices were rising around the planet as hardships exploded from global economic warfare and industrialization of agriculture.

As trillions of dollars were shifted out of America by legal and illegal means to reinvest in Asia and emerging markets and to build a global military empire, we left a sovereign nation economic model behind. Finally, the expense and corruption of empire resulted in bailouts of $12-14 trillion, delivering a new financial war chest to the people leading the financial engineering. Now we have exploding unemployment, an exploding federal deficit, an Inspector General for the TARP bailout program predicting that the ultimate bailout cost could rise to $23.7 trillion and a Congressional Budget Director who is concluding that we cannot longer afford the social safety net.

That is, unless you change the actuarial assumptions in the budget - like life expectancy. Lowering immune systems and increasing toxicity levels combined with poor food, water and terrorizing stress will help do the trick. A plague can so frighten and help control people that they will accept the end of their current benefits (and the resulting implications to life expectancy) without objection. And a plague with proper planning can be highly profitable. Whatever the truth of what swine flu is or vaccines rushed into production without proper testing and peer review, it is a way to keep control in a situation that is quickly shifting out of control.

It is a way to offset the inflation of capital with increasing deflation of the value and income of labor. It is a great deal of time and money spent on something that will not help build a real economy. It keeps the slow burn going. It is the next, meaner face of "the establishment against the rest of society."

That's what I believe. I am not an expert. I have no case worth presenting in a court of law. There are hundreds of hours of research on the swine flu and related vaccines that I have not done and I am not going to do. It is just what I believe, listening to the people I respect, and in no small part because if you map out all the financial ecosystems around the issue and people and incentives involved, it seems to me to be the logical conclusion.

Now, if this sounds ludicrous to you, it may be because you do not appreciate how dark the culture has become that is now in charge. Do you have any idea how impossibly frustrating it is to manage a highly centralized system in which the vast majority of people lack any responsibility to ensure that the whole thing works? Everyone wants their free lunch and there are no real markets or democracy to force accountability or a shared intelligence. Force works. Force has increasingly become the way to achieve most everything. Using force is a lot easier than living with rising risk and the costs of subsidizing an aging population.

So the question for you and me is "what do we do?" Are we going to take a vaccine? Are we going to allow our children to be vaccinated? Will we have a choice? How can we organize to make sure that we do? Is self-quarantine a practical option? How would we prepare for it?

What you believe is your responsibility. The time has come to build time into Summer schedules to research options, discuss them with those you trust and make informed decisions about what you believe and what actions you intend to take under a variety of scenarios.

I don't have the answers yet. Somehow, I believe we can find them together. And while we do, let's remember to pray for the love of humanity to be rekindled in each and every heart.
