(1) It is certain that the International Bankers loom large here, but are they the main players? Should the definition of "International Bankers" be expanded to include Big Brain Hominids who were apparently mining gold in southern Africa thousands of years ago? There is considerable talk and imagery of Luciferian and Demonic entities. Groups/cults such as Bohemian Grove make a big deal of this, and we see the bankers, the cults, the military, the Satanist, all mixed together. What is the connection? Certainly generating fear plays a big part in their operations to control us, especially fear of the unknown. Generating fear is a key aspect of their operations.

(2) Why would any group carry out such terrible assaults on humanity? They say directly that they want a One World Government, and what they are striving for is a total One World Tyranny. Should we look deeper or is the lust for power enough of an explanation? On examining the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion we find:

....19.".. But you yourselves perfectly well know that TO PRODUCE THE POSSIBILITY OF THE EXPRESSION OF SUCH WISHES BY ALL THE NATIONS IT IS INDISPENSABLE TO TROUBLE IN ALL COUNTRIES THE PEOPLE'S RELATIONS WITH THEIR GOVERNMENTS SO AS TO UTTERLY EXHAUST HUMANITY WITH DISSENSION, HATRED, STRUGGLE, ENVY AND EVEN BY THE USE OF TORTURE, BY STARVATION, BY THE INOCULATION OF DISEASES, BY WANT, SO THAT THE "GOYIM" SEE NO OTHER ISSUE THAN TO TAKE REFUGE IN OUR COMPLETE SOVEREIGNTY IN MONEY AND IN ALL ELSE."

Great to have power but this seems excessive. Note the point of view here: they want to "UTTERLY EXHAUST HUMANITY." Do they consider themselves not human?

(3) How is this being done? There is overwhelming evidence that this program of deception and destruction is being run by psychopathic minds in government and business/finance. Under these psychopathic minds are minions who for the most part do not fully understand what they are doing and the long-term implications for themselves. They get a paycheck and minor power to exercise their shallow puffed up egos. We see here weakness of the human mind, the failure to not dig deeper into understanding, to be pathologically superficial, to be overly cowed by authority and peer group opinion. It is a recipe for slavery or worse. A major question is: are our psychopathic rulers self-organizing, or are they directed by a higher agency (The Apex of Power)?

(4) What is the end point? Judging from the list of 24 above (and there are more), the end point is catastrophic for Homo sapiens. The Georgia Guide Stones states that there should be 500 million of us all speaking the same language.

THE MESSAGE OF THE GEORGIA GUIDESTONES

1. Maintain humanity under 500,000,000 in perpetual balance with nature.
2. Guide reproduction wisely - improving fitness and diversity.
3. Unite humanity with a living new language.
4. Rule passion - faith - tradition - and all things with tempered reason.
5. Protect people and nations with fair laws and just courts.
6. Let all nations rule internally resolving external disputes in a world court.

7. Avoid petty laws and useless officials.
8. Balance personal rights with social duties.
9. Prize truth - beauty - love - seeking harmony with the infinite.
10. Be not a cancer on the earth - Leave room for nature - Leave room for nature.

Catherine Austin Fitz

Overwhelmed by what was happening, I estimated the end result. My simple calculations guessed that we were going to achieve economic sustainability on Earth by depopulating down to a population of approximately 500 million people from our then current global population of 6 billion. I was a portfolio strategist used to looking at numbers from a very high level. Those around me could not fathom how all the different threads I was integrating could lead to such a conclusion. To me, we had to have radical change in how we governed resources or depopulate. It was a mathematical result.

A year later, in 1999, a very capable investment and portfolio strategist asked me if he could come have a private lunch with me in Washington. We sat in a posh restaurant across from the Capitol. He said quietly that he had calculated out where the derivatives and debt bubble combined with globalization were going. The only logical conclusion he could reach was that significant depopulation was going to occur. He said his estimates lead to an approximate population of 500 million. I said very quietly, "that's my estimate too." I will never forget the look of sadness that crossed his face. I was amazed to find someone else who understood.

This is all very nasty and I think incomprehensible in respect to human (Homo sapiens) goals.

Homo is the genus of great apes that includes modern humans and species closely related to them. The Hominidae; also known as great apes form a taxonomic family of primates, including four extant genera: chimpanzees and bonobos (Pan), gorillas (Gorilla), humans (Homo), and orangutans (Pongo).

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Hominidae>

Although we do not usually dwell on the emotional characteristics of our species, we very much appreciate the expression of empathy, an understanding of ethics, and the possession of a conscience. It is these qualities that endear us to each other. But if you consider many of the people in positions of power, mostly men, these characteristics are lacking. Andrew Lobaczewski, author of Political Ponerology, (A Science on the Nature of Evil Adjusted for Political Purposes), describes these people as Para Homo sapiens. They lack that which endears us to each other and allows us to trust each other. Now it turns out that another member of the genera Homo walked the earth with us: Homo capensis who had a brain 30% larger than ours and was our master.

History

For the purposes of analysis we will divide history into three broad eras:

The Ice Age
The Glacial Melt Down
The Biblical Era

The Ice Age, the Last Glacial Maximum lasted for about 100,000 years transitioning into the Glacial Melt Down, which lasted about 10,000 years ending about 7,000 years ago. During the Ice Age glaciers about two miles deep covered Northern North America and Eurasia. Sea level was 400 feet lower and there was no ice cap over the coast of Antarctica where the ice is now a mile deep. (This should be researched to increase accuracy).

What happened during the Ice Age? Lots that we don't know about. The entire earth was mapped by a mysterious civilization that has not left a trace as to its identity. To map the earth they had to establish longitude, they had to be expert ship builders, they had to have had agriculture and trade to finance all that they did which included building megalithic structures around the world, which are now under the oceans. We don't know their language, appearance, customs, diet, political organization, ethics or religion.. They knew astronomy and from the maps they apparently knew spherical trigonometry.

Also during the Ice Age there existed a huge civilization in Southern Africa that built very unusual circular stone structures and pyramids. Some sources give a date of 75,000 years ago for this civilization. (Adams Calendar. See also Michael Tellinger)

The Glacial Melt Down was thoroughly devastating. Sea level rose by 400 ft (this needs to be researched. See: Ice Age Civilization). This increase was calculated to average out to about one meter every hundred years but the rise was sometimes abrupt. For the Missoula Ice Lake in eastern Washington and adjacent states we have data. (<http://www.detectingdesign.com/harlenbretz.html>)

The melting glaciers formed huge lakes dammed by ice dams which intermittently failed, producing gigantic floods of 500 cubic miles of water roaring across the Scab Lands and over the Columbia River Gorge in in the space of 48 hours. Five hundred cubic miles is a cube 10 miles wide, 10 miles long, and 5 miles high. Where Portland would be, was under 400 ft of water.

The Biblical Era, beginning about 6000 years, is coming to a close, leading into the Era of Advancing Understanding of Brain Function in General, Homo sapien Instincts, Psychopathic Brain Function, Study of the Brain/Mind Function of Technocrats, and increasing understanding and development of Empathy and Ethics. We can easily see that Empathy, Ethical Behavior, and Application of the Golden Rule, are under unceasing attack. This is also the era of analyzing the Crypto-Terrestrials vs. Extra-Terrestrials. The great mass of material about Extra Terrestrials is unsubstantiated and appears to be chaff, i.e.: material widely dispersed to hide something, such as Crypto-Terrestrials. (Mac Tonnies wrote: Crypto-Terrestrials, but died in his sleep at age 34 before the book was complete.)

During the Ice Age Homo sapiens and Homo capensis and other Big Brain Hominid species lived together and the Big Brain species were clearly dominant over Homo sapiens. During the Glacial Melt Down the civilization of the Earth mappers (most probably Big Brains) collapsed. This civilization did not leave a record for us, and during the Biblical era Homo sapiens developed multiple civilizations, which have collapsed and disappeared. Civilizations currently in existence are in the process of collapsing, but now the mechanisms of subversive attack are easy to see, if one takes the trouble to look.

Excerpts from L Fletcher Prouty Understanding Special Operations

..because Churchill describes a High Cabal.

He's not the only one. Buckminster Fuller, a rare individual, has spent more time, at the invitation of Congress, before Congressional hearings than any other individual, with the probable exception of Admiral Rickover, advising Congress on different issues relating to the government. But interestingly enough, he has spent more time in the Kremlin as an advisor to the Soviets than he has in our own Congress. He worked with President Kubitschek in setting up the new Brazil. A rare individual. A man who knows the world and knows the leaders of the world. He writes about a "power elite," and that the apparent leaders, as we see them throughout the world, are certainly national leaders, but they're not the top echelon, the High Cabal.

In history you will find that the Chinese, as far back as 2,000 years ago, speak of a High Cabal that they call the "Gentry" -- and that the Chinese seem to have accepted that as a fact of life. Even though they had their emperors and their monarchs and leaders, they realized there's an echelon above that which directs some of the events that other people know nothing about. It's Fuller who hits the nail on the head. He says that the secret of the High Cabal is -- of course, it's control of power, but it is also the understanding that their most valuable asset is anonymity: that nobody can identify them. In that sense, you begin to talk, you begin to think: maybe they're just like angels or like ghosts, people say they're there, but, are they really?

I don't think it's that. In fact, I think that perhaps what people think of in terms of ghosts or angels, may be the reality that there is an echelon within our world, a small structure, that does really determine how things go. And I wouldn't argue the point. Because in my own experience in more than 80 countries -- and I have talked directly to presidents of countries and people on their level -- I have this feeling that they're taking their instructions from some other place. Now that may be personal, but I notice it in the writings of others as well.

There was a very intriguing story of a party that the rulers of China sent back to Bagdad with a very learned leader and some 15 or 20 scholars with him. He would sit and listen to the intelligent people of Bagdad as they explained how they did this, how they did that. Like arithmetic -- the Chinese had not learned the Arabic base for arithmetic, or for mathematics that spread all over the world. And the Chinese were taking notes in shorthand and they would listen and take notes in shorthand and as fast as the Arabs could talk to them they would transcribe it.

This had been going on for a while -- a while meaning years -- when another group of Chinese came and reported that the King, or the emperor, wanted the first group to come back -- for some reason they had to go back. By this time the elderly Chinaman had become good friends with the leader in Bagdad and he said, "Look, I have to return to my country, but I know there is much that we haven't finished studying." He said, "I would like you to give me 7 of your best scholars, each in their own trade, their own specialty, and ask them to dictate to me from their books". And he said, "I want to write it down and take this back to my emperor." And the Arab chief said, "You mean, you are going to write down what 7 men tell you simultaneously?" He said, "yes."

And he did. And after he had been copying for 3 or 4 hours the chief stopped his people and then he asked the Chinaman, "this man from section 3 over here, read back what he told you." He turned his pages, read it back perfectly. "OK, this man, No. 5, read it back." The Chinaman without fault had been taking down the shorthand listening to 7 people simultaneously. I use the figure 7, it might have been 8 or 10. Dr. Needham tells the story with great thoroughness.

What this says is that the Chinese had perfected, and we believe today, they retained this even more so than they had in those days, the ability to write a shorthand that could translate simultaneous lectures, not just one. And simultaneously probably to the number 7, 8, or 9. Dr. Needham gives the exact figure because he has seen it done.

What this means is that when you put all these together -- their culture, their art, their trading, their ability to make cast iron, and bronze, they drilled for oil at 2,000 feet using bamboo pipe -- they were not backward people. This without any question puts the Chinese at a level in history certainly equal to, but probably higher than, the levels of Europe and the Middle East.

Now when we educate ourselves enough to understand that, and as we have said earlier when we also understand that leaders of this world recognize a High Cabal, I think it is ridiculous, since I myself cannot disbelieve the existence of a High Cabal, that the High Cabal very probably includes Asians and more probably is led by Asians. I wouldn't argue that, I don't know how to explain it, except if you watch rain fall, you notice it all runs in accordance with gravity. Well, if you study mankind, you notice there is a sort of gravity in the day-to-day world of mankind, and I don't think it is all happenstance. I think that there is direction from, as Churchill says, the High Cabal. But I also believe that the High Cabal, which can include people from of course any region of the world -- I don't think they recognize countries -- I think the world is just the world for those people, and I believe that it would be strongly manned with Chinese or even probably led by Chinese.

As Buckminster Fuller says the two most powerfully disruptive forces in mankind are politics and religion.
